RAISING UP A GENERATION OF PRAISE

“Let this be written that a future generation, a people not yet created, may praise the Lord.” – Psalm 102:18

CLINICIAN: Jonathan Rodgers, Samford University

Jonathan Rodgers has been a pianist, worship leader, arranger/composer, and choral conductor for over twenty years. He is Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Music and Worship Leadership program in Samford’s School of the Arts and Faculty Fellow at Samford’s Center for Worship and the Arts. Most recently, he was the Minister of Worship Arts at Hunter Street Baptist Church (Birmingham, AL) and, prior to that, was Assistant Professor of Choral Music at Lee University (Cleveland, TN).

In addition to conducting and scholarly activities, Rodgers serves as Worship Pastor at The Church at Liberty Park. As a pianist and arranger, he has produced an album of his own piano arrangements for worship, “Be Still: Worship at the Piano.” Additionally, his choral works have been published with GIA/Walton Music, Pavane, Colla Voce, and Canorous Music and performed by churches, schools, and colleges at honor choir festivals and ACDA conventions across the nation—even Carnegie Hall. Jonathan has been married to his wife Alicia for twenty-one years, and they have four children: Savannah, Leighton, Brooks, and Gabe.

On Saturday morning, we will have multiple one-hour worship-related breakout sessions for students to choose from and attend. Choices may include piano/keyboard, guitar, bass, drums, projection, audio, and more! Students can sign Friday night and first thing Saturday morning.
